

Weiss MINISTRIES update

TOUCHING THE HEART OF THE WORLD WITH THE HEART OF GOD

✧ A Look Back at Year 2012 ✧

David & Juanita Weiss Weiss Ministries, Inc. of Chesapeake, a nonprofit ministry, founded in 2000, serves as a bridge between diverse demographics: ethnic, socio-economic, generational, and denominational. Weiss Ministries accomplishes its objectives through teaching, print and electronic media, the performing arts and missions.

Let Yeshua be your reason for this holiday season!

“We give thanks to God always for all of you, making mention of you in our prayers; constantly bearing in mind your work of faith and labor of love and steadfastness of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ [Yeshua, our Messiah]” (1 Thessalonians 1:3). What an amazing year this has been! It’s always good to look back and see that one set of “footprints in the sand” and realize that the Lord has been carrying you all along. That’s how the year has been with the open doors given to Weiss Ministries, Inc. (WM) to share the heart of God. Let’s recap:
January: For a third year, David was asked to bring a Messianic Jewish perspective to a Martin Luther King Celebration.
April: David & Juanita led Passover Seder demonstrations at United Jerusalem Holy Church, Chesapeake and Lighthouse Community Church, Norfolk. Juanita traveled to Ethiopia to serve the Beta Yisrael (Black Jewish) community. (see p. 2)
June: Juanita spoke at a Footwashing Ceremony in Norfolk, and, with Aminta Colon, danced and shared their missions story at Emmanuel Ethiopian Church in Virginia Beach.

July: Juanita spoke at Mt. Bethel Baptist Church, Virginia Beach and at a ladies tea at Dunamis Christian Center, Hampton.
August: Juanita was the Women’s Day Speaker at Way of the Truth COGIC, Norfolk. She filmed for a supporting role in the mini-drama “The Way” produced by YES, Inc.
September: Weiss Ministries for the second year produced an original drama written by Juanita Weiss, “On the Lips of Angels” at Beth Messiah Synagogue, Norfolk. (see page 3 for more info)
October: Juanita spoke on the “Significance of the Feast of Tabernacles” at Beautiful One Women’s Conference, New Life Church, Virginia Beach.

Thank you to all the churches and pastors who opened your doors so that Weiss Ministries could share its vision and message of unity in Messiah.

Because of your support in 2012, Weiss Ministries was able to give to the following ministries: Love & Hope ministries (with orphanages in India and Haiti); House of Israel Ministries (a ministry to Ethiopian Jews) and Bellevue Christian Center (with schools & orphanage in Haiti).

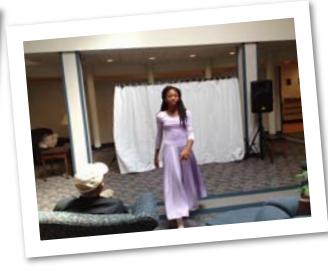

Check out these ministries online to discover more information about the ministries that you have helped because you supported us.

Satellite Performances of "On the Lips of Angels"

Part of WM's vision this year was to take an abbreviated satellite performance of "On the Lips of Angels" to an audience of the under-served and underprivileged sector of our population. We were able to visit the following institutions to bless the residents with the reality of God's love. Feb., Riverside Pace Day Center, Hampton; March, Oakwood Nursing Home, Virginia Beach; May, Baylake Nursing Home, Virginia Beach; July, Sentara Day Center Oak Grove, Chesapeake; Oak Grove Assisted Living Facility, Chesapeake. Over 200 residents had access to a quality, uplifting, wholesome and encouraging presentation that enlarged their reality and transformed their lives for the better. Young people from our cast (shown above) took the time from their jobs and normal tasks to bring joy into the lives of this under-served community. In so doing, they carried out one of the core values of WM by bridging denominational, generational, and religious gaps. After each performance they greeted and prayed with the residents showing them the Father's love.

It's time you knew and embraced your DAILY and LASTING purpose in the Kingdom of God!

AN EVENING OF FELLOWSHIP

WM sponsored a Book Talk, "An Evening of Fellowship" for its newest release by Juanita Weiss,

God Still Uses Vessels (GSUV). Over sixty supporters came to launch the book in the Penthouse of The Westin in Towne Center Pembroke, Saturday, May 19th. (above) Guests watched a promotional video for WM. Carolyn and Tesha Barnes sang an original song written by Nia Cason who was inspired by GSUV. Pastor Karl West, Rabbi Joe Rosenfarb, Elder Clinton McRae, Dr. Nell Jones and others offered words of affirmation and encouragement for WM's newest endeavor. Cindy Pryzmenski led worship from the Penthouse which offered a view of the skyline of the resort strip. The cast from On the Lips of Angels performed another gripping satellite performance. Others shared testimonials of how the book had blessed them. Refreshments, a drawing for a door prize and fellowship followed.

REFINING THE VESSEL

To further promote the life-changing message of GSUV, WM sponsored a Book Discussion in the Solarium, 9th floor of the Chamberlin Hotel, Hampton on July 22nd. (below) Over twenty supporters came to be refined through fellowship and refreshments, and a provocative discussion of the challenging issues raised by the book. Powerful prayer followed!

A Prophetic Journey to Ethiopia

One of the Ministries that WM supports is the House of Israel International Ministries, HIIM. CEO of HIIM, Messianic Ethiopian Rabbi Kokeb Gedamu sponsored a trip to Ethiopia in April to visit the Beta Yisrael (Black Jewish) communities who are living in abject poverty waiting to make aliyah to Israel. As a member of a missions group, Juanita spent 4 days in the capital city Addis Ababa, visiting Faith Bible Church which ran an all-day revival on a Tuesday where Rabbi Gedamu spoke. Given the opportunity to address over 7,000 Ethiopians gathered, Juanita told them of how God had spoken through a prophet twenty years prior of her “dancing in Africa.” She encouraged them that God had spoken over all of their lives and what He has spoken is good and if He has spoken it, it will come to pass. She told them that according to Isaiah 18, Ethiopia will offer to the Lord a gift upon Mt. Zion that He will accept. Therefore, they have a great destiny in the Lord. After Rabbi Gedamu translated, thousands broke into a thunderous praise for a God who speaks and delivers.

Then the group flew to Gondar, Ethiopia and enjoyed a two-day revival at Marakie Full Gospel Believers Church high on a Gondar mountain and enjoyed an Ethiopian worship dance (Top 3). The group also traveled to the land where HIIM will build an orphanage. Then they journeyed miles by van, then by foot to several remote villages of the Beta Yisrael. Mud and hay huts dotted the countryside where parched, cracking soil longed for the fall rains. Thin, malnourished, scantily dressed and mostly barefoot, but beautiful, children waited for us under a huge oak tree (Bottom L). We measured them and the next day went into the market place to buy clothes, water and bread, a temporary fix to the debilitating condition of their poverty (Top 2nd & 4th). Juanita had an opportunity to bless the beautiful city of Gondar (Top 1).

“On the Lips of Angels” 2012

For the second year, WM produced the original play “On the Lips of Angels” written by Juanita Weiss in September. The Premise: When Elohim tells the angels of his plan to redeem mankind, they pull every stop to get him to alter His plans. With three performances at Beth Messiah Synagogue in Norfolk, WM reached almost 300 people with a message of God’s incredible love for mankind. Jo T. Silva, one attendant who came from Roanoke, VA, said, “This was one of the most professional and outstanding performances that I have ever seen. It was well written and flawless. The performers were awesome and the plot gave the audience a great deal to contemplate. I think the play would dazzle Broadway.” The 2012 production introduced the following additions: the angel Rafael; male and female counterparts of the adversary; an eight-member angelic troupe who danced to original and anointed choreography by assistant director Ravenn McDowell to Paul Wilbur’s “Holy, Holy, Holy”; and an eight-member step team comprising the warrior angel band commanded by Michael the archangel.

amazing dancing & warring angels and our amazing support crew.

Look for the 2013 production of OTLOA. Already we are gearing up for auditions, tweaking rehearsal schedule and seeking personnel. If you are interested in being a part of this life-changing production, send us an e-mail at info@weissministries.com.

The Board of WM would like to personally thank those who attended the performances. We would like to give a special note of gratitude to our patrons: Connie & Emeka Anonyuo, Beth Messiah Synagogue Chai Fund, Jose & Aminta Colon, Steve & Pam Foster, Tony & Karen Mulford, Wendy Peebles, Cindy Pryzmanski, Josephine Turner, and Corine Tyler. You made it possible so that we could share this beautiful message of the Father's unconditional love.

INTERESTED IN PURCHASING ONE OF OUR BOOKS TO GIVE AS A GIFT: Call us at (757) 839-0778 to purchase a gift-wrapped copy of God Still Uses Vessels or Journey Beyond Imagination (a true story of amazing faith and an unconquerable spirit) to share for Hanukkah, Christmas or birthdays. It is indeed a gift that keeps on giving!

INTERESTED IN DONATING: Please consider making a donation to Weiss Ministries, Inc. Since WM is a 501(c)3 nonprofit ministry, your donation is tax-deductible. Your support helps us to publish materials that prepare the Bride for her Bridegroom's return; bridge societal gaps through teaching, publications and drama; and to support foreign missions that feed the hungry, educate the poor & illiterate, and spread the Gospel. Use the self-addressed envelope enclosed or log on to www.weissministries.org to donate electronically. May God bless you richly for your support!
